

Cardiac Anatomy for Radiographers and Allied Healthcare Professionals

Thursday 21 September 2023

Location: Royal Brompton Hospital (Fulham Road entrance), London, UK
Research Facility, Education centre.

Faculty: Dr Tom Semple, Dr Karen McCarthy, Dr Jan L. Robertus, Prof Sabine Ernst, Prof Yen Ho

Objective: To have an understanding of essential cardiac anatomy and anatomy relevant to clinical imaging followed by review of basic pathologies.

Format: Live video demonstration of heart specimens, lectures, hands-on examination of heart specimens

Register for either in person attendance [09.30am to 3.30pm] or Online attendance [09.30 to 13.00 UK time]

<https://www.rbht.nhs.uk/for-healthcare-professionals/education-and-training-0/royal-brompton-cardiac-morphology>

09.25 – 09.30	Registration
09.30 – 09.40	Welcome & Introduction (quiz)	Yen Ho
09.40 – 10.15	Normal heart chambers video demo	Karen McCarthy
10.15 – 11.00	Living anatomy – imaging perspective	Tom Semple
11.00 – 11.10	Break
11.10 – 12.00	Living anatomy – electrophysiology perspective	Sabine Ernst
12.00 – 12.50	Valves, conduction system, coronary arteries, veins and structures around the heart	Yen Ho
12.50 – 13.00	Quiz review	Yen Ho
13.00 – 13.45	Break (lunch)
13.45 – 14.15	Practical session: hands-on hearts	Karen/Yen
14.15 – 14.45	Pathologies (examples) video demo	Jan L Robertus
14.45 – 15.25	Congenitals (examples) video demo	Karen/Yen
15.25 – 15.30	Summary	Yen Ho